

Great FACES GREAT Places

Six national parks and 56 state parks and recreation areas showcase South Dakota's greatest asset: its natural beauty. Explore expansive prairies, pristine lakes and thousands of acres of forest as you witness first hand the wonder of the state's greatest places.

South Dakota

Great FACES GREAT Places

When you visit a state this geographically diverse, outdoor adventure presents itself in many forms. Visitors can ride horses through the Black Hills, waterski across the Mighty Missouri River or climb 7,242 feet to the top of Black Elk Peak - the highest point east of the Rockies. If you love being outside, you'll delight in the wide-open spaces of South Dakota.

South Dakota

Great FACES GREAT Places

...ual Regatta started in 1907, and after 100 years, still represents one of the best ways to experience American culture. From the hallowed drum beats of Wacipi to the feather and blue of the hundreds of thousands of motorcycles rumbling through Sturgis to the 1,200+ buildings, thousands of miles, we invite you to experience for yourself the great events and cultures of this Great Place.

South Dakota

Great FACES GREAT Places

From national icons to unexpected discoveries - you'll quickly see just how simple it is to find the fun here in South Dakota. So come, get your hands dirty, use those outside voices and make a lifetime of unforgettable memories with your family.

South Dakota

South Dakota

LOOK INSIDE TO SEE WHY YOU WON'T FIND ANY PLACE GREATER.

Great FACES GREAT Places

The Sisseton Wahpeton Oyate Annual Wacipi started in 1867, and after 150 years, still represents one of the best ways to celebrate South Dakota's Native American culture. From the hallowed drum beats of Wacipis to the rhythm and blues of the Sioux Falls Jazzfest, from the hundreds of thousands of motorcycles rumbling through Sturgis to the 1,300+ buffalo thundering across Custer State Park, we invite you to experience for yourself the great events and cultures of this Great Place.

South Dakota

Great FACES
GREAT Places

From national icons to unexpected discoveries - you'll quickly see just how simple it is to find the fun here in South Dakota. So come, get your hands dirty, use those outside voices and make a lifetime of unforgettable memories with your family.

South Dakota

Great FACES GREAT Places

Six national parks and 56 state parks and recreation areas showcase South Dakota's greatest asset: its natural beauty. Explore expansive prairies, pristine lakes and thousands of acres of forest as you witness first hand the wonder of the state's greatest places.

South Dakota

Great FACES GREAT Places

When you visit a state this geographically diverse, outdoor adventure presents itself in many forms. Visitors can ride horses through the Black Hills, waterski across the Mighty Missouri River or climb 7,242 feet to the top of Black Elk Peak – the highest point east of the Rockies. If you love being outside, you'll delight in the wide-open spaces of South Dakota.

South Dakota

Win a
FREE
South Dakota
vacation!

Sign up for your chance to win a South Dakota getaway for your family or friends.

To enter, visit TravelSouthDakota.com/Giveaway

.....

South Dakota

TravelSouthDakota.com // 800-732-5682