

SOMEONE HAD TO BLAZE THE TRAIL.

For Wyoming women, trailblazing is a way of life. So, it's no surprise Wyoming was the first to guarantee women the right to vote and hold office – a full 50 years before the rest of the nation. We're celebrating the 150th anniversary of women's suffrage by deeming 2019 the Year of Wyoming Women. We invite all who visit the Equality State to find inspiration in our women's stories and push their own boundaries.

That's WY[™]

WYOMING
HOME OF THE WOMEN'S VOTE.
